

FREE music tuition for Primary 4: Armadale and Livingston Strings Music Centre

The Royal Conservatoire of Scotland Junior Conservatoire and West Lothian Council Community Arts are offering the opportunity for children in Primary 4 (as of August 2020) to receive free instrumental tuition in violin, viola, cello or mini/double bass (classical), supported through funding from the Youth Music Initiative.

Through the Music Centre programme, students will receive:

- instrumental string lessons delivered in small groups
- practical musicianship classes
- the opportunity of playing in a string orchestra

Classes are held weekly and led by a team of professional music specialists from the Royal Conservatoire. They are designed to give young learners a high quality, cohesive music education, delivered in a fun and inspiring environment.

Places are limited and will be offered on a first-come, first-served basis.

Please note, due to Covid-19, we are currently delivering our Music Centre programmes online in Term 1.

When: Saturday afternoons, 14 Nov 2020 - 19 Jun 2021

Where: Armadale Primary School and Craigsfarm Community Hub

For more information on how to apply and to secure your place, visit <https://tinyurl.com/centres2021>

